DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On July 18, 2019, Renee Brockman filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that as a result of the tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis vaccine she received on December 11, 2017, she suffered brachial neuritis. (Petition at 1). On August 12, 2021, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 37).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated February 14, 2022, (ECF No. 43), requesting a total award of $33,509.54 (representing $31,465.10 in fees and $2,044.44 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (Id. at 1). Respondent reacted to the motion on February 15, 2022, indicating that he is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at the Court's discretion. (ECF No. 44). Petitioner filed a reply on February 16, 2022, requesting that the fees and costs be awarded in full. (ECF No. 45).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $33,509.54 (representing $31,465.10 in fees and $2,044.44 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
